Minutes: December 6, 2007

Dave called the meeting to order with the usual "Good Afternoon, Graham" and welcomed our special guests, The Alamance Christian School Ensemble.

There were no guests or visiting are warm winter clothing, winter pajamas, bath towels, and books. Rotarians can voluntarily donate a suggested $25 each (or more) to the drive. Please note, the meeting on the 13th is the last chance to do so.

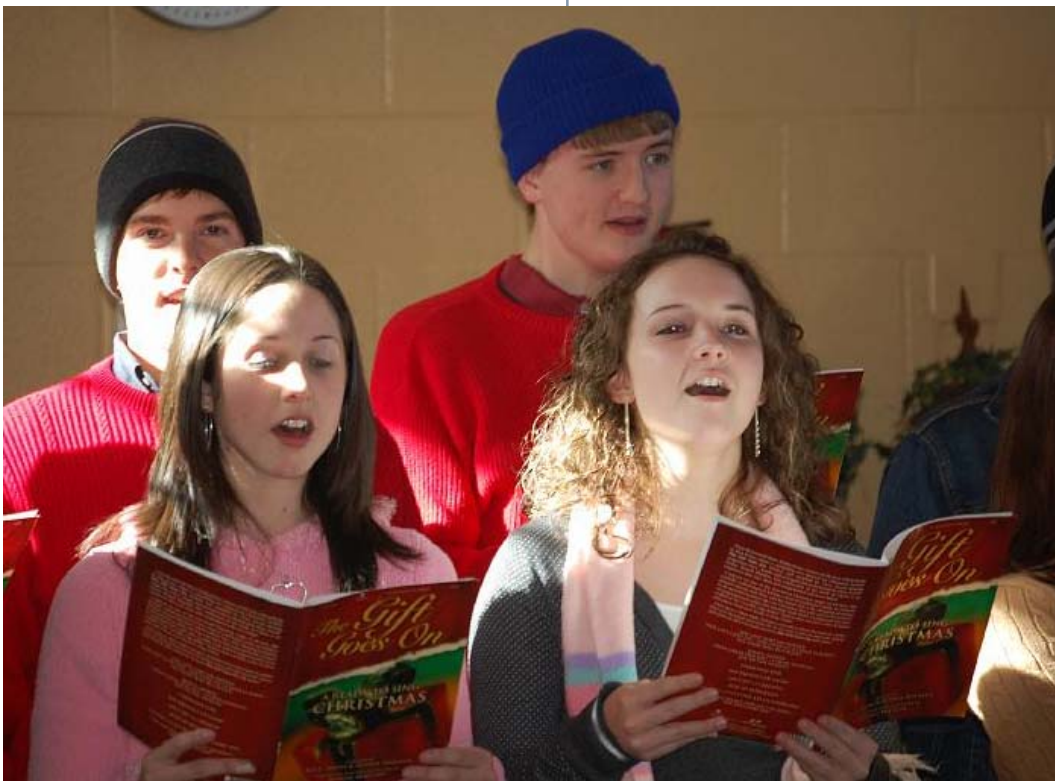

Matt Thomas, the former Student of the Month from Alamance Christian School, sent a thank you note for the honor placed upon him. He was also in attendance as a member of the ensemble.

Jeff Noah has resigned from the club.

As for Happy Dollars, Mark can see and Dave bought his first Christmas gift, a rarity considering he normally waits until the 24th to begin shopping.

Elmer was program director and introduced Dwayne Manning, the director of the Alamance Christian School Choir.

—Jeff Batts

The Alamance Christian School Ensemble was our guest for lunch and our program last week. Thanks to Elmer Brown for arranging this treat.

Rotarians. There was also no social calender update.

There are requests to help Operation Merry Christmas again this year. Some to the items needed

There are many more photos of the Ensemble at:
