Minutes of January 24, 2007

Chuck opened the meeting with the customary, "Good Morning Graham." There were no guest. Happy anniversary to David Cheek. Bill Inge was awarded a 3-Ruby pin for his service to the Paul Harris Fund. Terry McNeal was awarded a Presidential Citation.

The Graham Rotary Club raised 929.00 for the Christmas Cheer program.

The Shoulder sale will be this Saturday. There are a total of 30. Dave is looking for volunteers to participate in delivering groceries for Loaves and Fishes on May 10th. He is looking for 20 Rotarians to help.

The Golf Tournament will be held on April 18th. Mark has agreed to put together a brochure to help market the event. There will also be an opportunity for a $1000 Corporate Sponsor. Please make a note that only one

Graham Rotarian can be on a team of four.

The guest speaker, Michael Hazzard, is in charge of the local SADD (Students Against Destructive Decisions) at Southern Middle School. SADD gives these students an opportunity to belong and choose better alternatives. They need sponsors and contributions for their many service activities. —Jeff Batts
