Minutes of March 27, 2007

The meeting was called to order by President Chuck with the usual greeting of, "Good Afternoon Graham."

There was one guest, Cory Batts, the son of Jeff Batts and a junior at Williams High School.

Reminders were sent out for volunteers for Loaves and Fishes special delivery on May 10th. At least 8 more volunteers are needed.

Ernest reminded the Rotary Club about the Scholarship offered by the Rotary Foundation and asked for any suggestions for promoting it. He is looking at a deadline of December to submit interested names of potential students.

Randy Day was introduced as the newest Graham Rotarian. He is a graduate of Williams High School and UNC Chapel Hill. He has been married to Belinda for 20 years and they have two daughters. He is employed by Mid Carolina Bank in Graham. The rumor is true; he did in fact, play JV Basketball at UNC Chapel Hill and taught Roy Williams everything he knows about coaching!

Reminders were also brought by

Dave about the golf tournament. ACC is the prime sponsor, but more are needed. So far, there are 12 teams and 16 sponsors. Dave also introduced a 50/50 drawing with great prizes.

Terry McNeil was in charge of the Program and introduced Howard Hendricks, a history instructor at ACC. Mr. Hendricks spoke extensively about the American Revolution. He also had great demonstrations of weapons used in that era.

Remember the roadside clean-up on April 26th.

—Jeff Batts

Our newest Rotarian, Randy Day, tells the club a bit about himself.
