A Big Rotary Thanks

...to Mike Johnston, owner of Details Cleaning Services, for cleaning our food warmer. His company cleans the Graham Police Department and while there last Friday, he noticed the deplorable condition of our serving cart and offered to clean it. Thanks, Mike. We appreciate you.

...and to Chief Jeff Prichard and the Graham Police Department for hosting us last week. Not only did this give us a place to meet when we were in a pinch but it ended up fetching us a clean warmer to boot!

And while we're at it...thanks to Graham Friends Church for providing their fellowship hall as meeting space until the Civic Center is remodeled.

Minutes of April 3, 2007

The Rotary meeting was moved to the Graham Police station due to problems at the church and we had one of our best turnouts of the year with standing room only.

Visitors included Mike Eaton of Wachovia Securities, Lieutenant Brad Shirley and Captain Steve McGilvray, both of the Graham Police Department.

Barney is about to celebrate his 25th Wedding Anniversary. We trust that his wife will celebrate as well. Don Keeler has a birthday coming up... Looks like the big 49!

Elmer presented Chris Felmet of Eastern Alamance High School with the award for Student of the Month. Chris plans to attend UNC Wilmington in the fall. His counselor, Erin Thibodeaux, introduced him to the club.

The golf news is all good. As of the beginning of the meeting, we had 21 teams and $3,750.00 worth of sponsors. The deadline for entries and sponsors is this Thursday. We also need volunteers.

Ty presented our speaker. She was Che Dunn, a former IRS auditor employed by the IRS for 20 years.

Rotary has a long way to go. One who thinks of the movement as a finished product is indeed short sighted; there is nothing in the past to justify such a view; those who have been long identified with it think of it as having made a beginning only; the grandeur of Rotary must be in the days to come.
—Paul Harris, Founder of Rotary
