Meeting Minutes September 4, 2008

Clyde Albright was a guest of Phil and is interested in possibly becoming a new member of our club. Steve McGilvray was a guest of Jeff P.

don't have to commit to the entire 4 hours, but please show up to help out. We are planning on preparing 10,000 meals in that 4-hour period.

Reggie was our program chair and introduced Dr. Patrick Harman, the Executive Director of the Hayden-

Bonnie was back with us today. She said that she is still recovering, but is feeling much better!

Angelica announced that there will be a blood drive at the Courtyard by Marriott in Burlington of 9/12/08 from 1:30-6:30 pm. Courtyard is located off exit 141.

On 10/16/08 we will be preparing meals from 10-12 & 1-3 pm for Stop Hunger Now. We will hopefully be at the Graham Civic Center by then, but if not, hopefully Mark will allow us to continue to utilize the recreation building at Graham Friends Church. We will solidify a place as the day approaches. There will not be a regular club meeting that day and you

Dr. Patrick Harman talking on transportation issues, flanked by President Dave Laughlin and Reggie Turner

Harman Foundation. He is responsible for making giving recommendations as well as monitoring and guiding the foundation's processes for determining charitable activities. He spoke with us about public transit in Burlington and what it would require monetarily to fund. He discussed the benefits of public transit and Park-and-Ride and how much money they would save individuals.

50/50: The winning ticket belonged to Bonnie but she failed to draw the Queen of Spades.
