Meeting Minutes January 29, 2009

Don Kehler had his daughter, Melody, with him as a guest today.

Deva Reese visited from the Alamance Breakfast Club.

Madison Taylor, editor of the Burlington Times News spoke at this week's meeting

Mike Loflin from Alamance Christian School introduced Patrick Avery as our student of the month.

Chuck proposed that we might consider donating our old piano to the senior center since we no longer use it and they are in need of a better one. The piano was originally donated by Bill to the club and he had no objections to the donation to the center. Everyone was in agreement that we should make the donation.

Our program chair was Chuck and he introduced Madison Taylor from the Times News. Madison spoke with us about the state of the newspaper industry and fielded multiple questions about the Times News.

Terry had the winning 50:50 ticket but did not pull the winning card. The pot stands at $202.50.

World Understanding

In Rotary, February is World Understanding Month—a time to focus on the importance of goodwill and understanding for peace. It is a time for all of us to pause and consider how we are pursuing Rotary's fourth Avenue of Service—International Service—because it is our international service, and our international fellowship, that will do the most to help us all build a more peaceful tomorrow.
